143/15 MAYOR'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Mayor updated the Town Council on his official engagements throughout September and the first week of October. These included attending the Police and Crime Commissioners Annual Review meeting and judging various categories for the Classic Car Extravaganza. It was noted that the Clerks had received many letters thanking the Town Council for the support given to the Classic Car Show.

144/15 REPORTS FROM TOWN COUNCILLORS

Councillor David Moore attended a meeting of the Armed Forces Day Committee. He reported that the 2015 event had remained within budget and that ideas and suggestions to enhance the 2016 event had been presented. Armed Forces Day 2016 will take place on Saturday 18 June.

Councillor Phil Warren was pleased to report that Ryde had won a Silver Gilt award for the town entry into South & South East in Bloom 2015. A meeting for Ryde in Bloom Working Party was due to take place on 8 October and the group would be considering options for both the local 'in bloom' competition and any improvements that may need to be made to help achieve the 'Gold' award. Councillor Warren reported that he had attended the My Life a Full Life Locality meeting.

Councillor Tim Wakeley, Chairman of the Planning Committee updated the Council on the current situation regarding the Pennyfeathers planning application. The Town Council's Planning Committee has written formally to the Isle of Wight Council indicating that Section 106 agreement must be signed in order for the application to move forward. It is the Planning committee's view that if this should not happen that the application be deemed to be invalid.

Councillor Conrad Gauntlett reported that he had attended a meeting for the Children's Centre Advisory Board. He was also pleased to report the huge success of the 2015 'Community Crush' project.

Councillor Gauntlett informed Council that following the loss of local bus services that a bid was made to Community Action to replace these services. This will serve the communities of Fishbourne, Havenstreet, Haylands, Wootton, Upton and Ryde at strategic times of the day.
